

THE VILLAGE VOICE

WIMBLEDON VILLAGE

WIMBLEDON VILLAGE TRANSFORMS INTO A CREATIVE SHOWCASE FOR THE CHAMPIONSHIPS

Every summer, Wimbledon Village becomes more than just a place to shop, dine and stroll – it becomes a giant canvas for the imagination.

As The Championships return, around 70 businesses across the Village will once again transform their windows with tennis-inspired displays, creating a unique trail of creativity for visitors to discover.

From fashion boutiques and cafés to estate agents, salons, charities and professional services, businesses of every kind embrace the spirit of Wimbledon in their own distinctive way. Some displays are ambitious feats of engineering. Others rely on wit, storytelling or painstaking craftsmanship. Together, they create a celebration that can only happen in Wimbledon Village.

Now in its thirteenth year, the Tennis Windows Competition has become a much-loved tradition for residents, visitors and businesses alike. Thousands of people explore the displays each year, with many travelling especially to see them in person and vote for their favourites.

Alongside the independent judges' awards, visitors are invited to have their say through the online public vote. Last year, more than 4,000 votes were cast and over 10,000 people visited the voting platform, making it one of the most closely followed elements of the competition.

So take a walk through the Village, discover the displays, choose your favourite and cast your vote. You never know which window will capture your imagination – or take home this year's title. Follow @WV_Events Instagram and see WimbledonVillage.com
